

Night Song with Frogs for cimbalom and CD (2004) – c.6 minutes EP 71218

Night Song with Frogs: in company with a nocturnal chorus of frogs, a cimbalom articulates a solo in five verses. The Frogs were recorded by David Lumsdaine on the Darling River; the cimbalom music has a debt to the Gilbert third Piano sonata. The piece lasts six minutes and is dedicated to Tony Gilbert for his 70th birthday, with love and admiration . I am grateful to Ed Cervenka for a lesson on this marvelous instrument. NL
